

SYNOPSIS

PLATEAU

Shortfilm about happiness

Everything seems to be against Janne. Is it just because of bad luck? Plateau is a human story about people searching for happiness in their stagnant lives in snowy smalltown Finland.

The destinies of two couples get tangled up in a remote small village. Their attitudes towards life differ a lot, however they all have something valuable to give to each other. As well as to the viewer...

The film portrays the events of a wintery day from the point of view of Janne. Janne is leaving for work frustrated with everyday life, when things take a sudden turn. In fact nothing seems to be as it was...
